From the Principal's Desk

As this very unusual school year comes to a close, it is important to acknowledge all the feelings that came with the transition. The classrooms looked emptier and only a few remnants of the presence of students remained: a pencil here or a sticky note there containing a past thought. Many emotions can fill an empty space. There were feelings of uncertainty, excitement, exhaustion, joy, anticipation, calm, and relief. We are eagerly looking forward to the new academic year, feeling stronger, more resilient and better mentally prepared to make the most of all that the year brings.

At this present point of time, we are supporting students as they reflect on their accomplishments. We are helping to guide the completion of culminating projects. We are providing students with the learning and skills they need to prepare for final assessments, and planning and engaging in end-of-the-year celebrations. The rigorous pace and many tasks of the final weeks of school can be daunting. With everything that's going on, it's difficult to remember to pause so that we can refocus and regain balance.

Taking the time to pause creates an opportunity to hit the reset button in our minds, to be more present, to more fully acknowledge the moments, thoughts, and emotions that are an important part of the end of the school year.

The end of the school year invites an opportunity to pause and celebrate successes. Life is competitive, and children learn that it's best to be good at things from a young age. Winning a game or being the best in the class gives children a good feeling about themselves and makes them proud. It shows them that they are good at something which builds their self-confidence. Confident children are more likely to develop a 'can-do-attitude'. The feeling of winning prepares children to think more strategically. This is because the experience of winning helps children get motivated to take the next steps to achieve even bigger goals. Competition is also helpful to inspire children to do more than is required. This is an ability that prepares children for a variety of situations in their future lives, when it is up to them to make the decision whether they want to be part of the crowd or to be recognized for going a step further. In that sense, winning competitions helps children to succeed.

We have stayed true to our School Vision and enabled students to find their genius. We wholeheartedly applaud our superstars on their victories and many accomplishments. Here is the list of student achievers in Term 2 – they have proved that “the key is not the will to win... everybody has that. It is the will to prepare to win that is important.”

PRIMARY SCHOOL CHESS CHAMPIONSHIPS 2021

MARCH 22, 2021

The pawns are aligned, the pieces are set and the game begins! Students from across the Primary School are filled with excitement as the Chess Championships kick off. These games are not just about kings and queens – but rather strategic thinking, making smart decisions and anticipating consequences.

Playing Chess is an activity that fully exercises your mind. Chess is quite like a brain tonic which enhances concentration, patience, and perseverance, as well as develops creativity, intuition, memory, and most importantly, the ability to process and extract information from a set of general principles, learning to make tough decisions and solving problems flexibly.

A total of 243 matches were played and we applaud the Winners of this hard fought Tournament.

You came! You saw! You conquered!
