EDITION #8

From the Principal's Desk

It is amazing how quickly time has gone by. We are halfway through this very unusual school year, and our staff have made great strides in educating our students. We have focused on engaging and inspiring our students to reach their fullest academic, behavioral and emotional potential. Through assessment, evaluation, planning and instruction, we have offered high academic and behavioral expectations to ensure our students achieve great things.

We are excited about the work done to enrich the educational experiences of our students in Term 2. Not only have we invested in our students, but we have also invested in our staff to ensure they have the tools and know-how necessary to grow our curious learners.

Every decision made has been student-centered. We are committed to our vision of providing an exceptional education for today and tomorrow.

The second half of the 2019-2020 academic year promises to be even more enriching, and we look forward to the continued partnership and support of our parent community. Our faculty has put in a lot of time, thought and effort to provide an exceptional learning environment for each student. We have realigned our curriculum and instructional practices in the light of the 'new normal' to engage, equip, and empower every student.

Relationships are so very important and it is the same within the School. We value and consciously build these relationships - between students and teachers; teachers and parents; teachers and teachers; and the School and the wider community. We recognize that relationships are a game changer, and we intentionally nurture relationships that are rooted in trust and respect. We welcome our parents to engage in conversations with our teachers around what is working well and what could be even better so we can be responsive partners.

Great things are happening in GEMS Millennium School, Sharjah. So, do remember to follow our Facebook and Instagram page!
